

A Season Sublime . . . our 84th

Paul F. Mueller directs the area's most acclaimed chorus in a season not to be missed:

Celebrate the traditions of Christmas

Revel in romantic jazz on Valentine's Day

Savor the evocative music of France

Experience the ecstasy of Verdi's Requiem

With over 120 voices, GCS excites audiences with its power and charms with its subtlety. And it constantly surprises: from opera to jazz, Bach to Bernstein, the audience never knows quite what to expect. Except for excellence – that they expect! And get.

Be Surprised! Enjoy! Be thrilled!

Music from a French Cathedral

Sunday, March 7, 2010 / 4pm

CHRIST CHURCH GREENWICH, 254 East Putnam Avenue

Imagine the evocative sounds of Fauré's lyrical Cantique de Jean Racine paired with Vierne's majestic Messe Solennelle, and more. With organ virtuoso James Kennerley at the console, this concert should be a musical tour de force for chorus and audience!

Verdi: Messa da Requiem

Sunday, May 23, 2010 / 4pm

PALACE THEATRE, 61 Atlantic Street, Stamford

This timeless work explores feelings of loss and sorrow, forgiveness and mercy - sometimes with overwhelming power, sometimes with delicacy, always with majesty.

Christmas at Christ Church

Saturday, December 5, 2009 / 4pm
Sunday, December 6, 2009 / 4pm & 7pm

CHRIST CHURCH GREENWICH, 254 East Putnam Avenue

Celebrate the season as we present So Hallowed is the Time by Stephen Paulus - a splendid Christmas Cantata commissioned by the Greenwich Choral Society in 1980. Enjoy other works by American composers, as well as familiar spirituals and carols.

A Gershwin Valentine

Benefit Concert & Silent Auction

Sunday, February 14, 2010 / 4pm

NORWALK CONCERT HALL, 125 East Avenue

Back by popular demand! The Fascinatin' Rhythm of a dazzling New York All-Star "Big Band" combined with the voices of GCS prove that we can Do It Again, as in 2007. Don't miss this Cheerful Little Earful! A very special Valentine's Day concert.

A note about the May 23rd concert:

The Palace Theatre in Stamford is a perfect place in which to stage the Verdi Requiem with its 235 performers - chorus, soloists, and orchestra. It is also a more expensive venue, which comes with its own special rules and charges. All tickets - except those ordered by Greenwich Choral Society season subscribers - must be purchased through the Palace Theatre box office by calling 203-325-4466. Tickets are priced at $42, $35 and $28. Plus, there is a $7.00 per ticket fee. No discounts are available for this concert.
